Notes from the boss.....

When we looked at the run in to the end of the season we fancied the Huddersfield and Brentford games to be among our hardest. Well, we got over the Huddersfield hurdle quite well on Monday and today we take on Steve Perryman's chaps.

Brentford are still in with a chance of making the play-offs so we can obviously expect them to be flying today, bidding to put pressure on our Lancashire neighbours Preston.

For our part we are delighted to have gone 16 games without defeat and I was especially pleased to see the strikers get among the goals on Monday, Jeff Chandler too. They all know they've got to keep it going and that I won't allow anyone to slacken off. I won't tolerate any lessening of their efforts as they try to secure their places for Wembley.

Nicky Brookman, Stuart Storer, Mike Jeffrey and Gary Henshaw are all there on the fringes of the first team and also helping us try to force a place in the First Division of the Central League, which is very important to the club's development.

Chris O'Brien and Paul Hughes have also returned to the fold and Mark Came is jogging along very nicely so things are bubbling.

BRENTFORD

Brentford are busy awaiting the arrival of their forthcoming Centenary Season as the Club was formed in October 1889 and therefore the 1989/90 season has been designated for the Centenary celebrations.

They are obviously hoping that this season will see them recover their Second Division status which they lost in 1954, since when they have fluctuated between the Third and Fourth Divisions. Since Player/Manager Steve Perryman took over from Frank McLintock in February 1987 he has completely restructured the playing side of the club as well as making many changes in the playing personnel he has reintroduced a reserve side which in its first season achieved the Capital League double of the League Championship and Cup winners. He also introduced a vibrant junior structure under Youth Development Officer Colin Lee. This season there will be 20 YTS boys at Griffin Park and they were also successful in their first season with three of the boys obtaining Representative honours including Marcus Gayle where unfortunately he broke his leg playing for England in the U-17 match against Sweden in Switzerland. Two youngsters, Paul Buckle and Matthew Howard also made their League debuts.

In their 99 years history Brentford like most League Clubs have had a chequered time, their halcyon days being in the 1930's when they won promotion from the 3rd Division (south) to the 1st Division in 3 seasons. Subsequently after the war their fortunes slumped and they were relegated to the 2nd Division in 1947 and 7 years after to the 3rd Division (south).

PEN PICTURES

STEVE PERRYMAN (Player/Manager): Former England International who made a record number of appearances for Tottenham Hotspur and captained them in many of their outstanding achievements. Subsequently he left to join Oxford United before coming to Griffin park as assistant Player/Manager in November 1986 before taking over as Manager when Frank McLintock left three months later. Steve has made over 950 appearances and will continue to keep fit to play when needed.

PHIL HOLDER (Assistant Manager): A colleague of Steve Perryman's at Spurs and after this went to Bournemouth as captain then spent a short spell in America before joining Crystal Palace as Youth Team Coach before joining up with Steve at Brentford.

TONY PARKS (Goalkeeper): Signed in August from Tottenham for £60,000 has had continuous first team experience as understudy to Ray Clemmence and is of course remembered for his penalty save in 1984 UEFA Cup Final against Anderlecht which culminated in Tottenham winning the Cup.

KEITH MILLEN (Defender): Former Brentford junior who appeared in the Freight Rover Trophy Final at Wembley against Wigan in June 1985 when only 18. Has appeared regularly in the number four shirt ever since and was voted the Sponsors Player of the Year two seasons ago.

Burnden Visitors

JAMIE BATES (Defender): Another former junior who has developed through the YTS scheme and has regularly appeared in the defence alongside Keith Millen or Terry Evans.

ANDY FEELEY (Midfield): Has considerable First Division experience with Leicester City, but was released by them last summer after a troublesome cartilage operation. Signed in September 1987 and can play equally well both at fullback and in midfield.

ALLAN COCKRAM (Midfield): Was a colleague of Steve Perryman's at Tottenham, subsequently moving to Bristol Rovers and then to America. His career was interrupted by a troublesome Achilles tendon operation and joined St. Albans City where he scored 29 goals last season before moving to Brentford on transfer eve deadline and immediately establishing himself in midfield.

GARY BLISSETT (Forward): Signed on the 87 deadline although he scored 10 goals last season this was rather a disappointing return for the talented striker who expects to achieve a better figure this season.

RICHARD CADETTE (Forward): Signed in July from Sheffield United for a record Brentford fee of £77,500. Was previously at Leyton Orient and Southend and has been a consistent goalscorer wherever he has been.

MATCH REPORT

This week has seen another traditional hectic end of season football scene. In a busy bank holiday fixture calendar it can prove difficult sometimes to keep an up to date analysis with so many crucial encounters taking place in such a short space of time. The race for the Championship is on, or a welcome promotion spot at stake, whilst at the bottom, teams struggling for status make one last determined bid.

Last Saturday the Wanderers marched on at Gigg Lane after recording a 0-0 draw with neighbours Bury to extend the latest unbeaten run to 15 games. Then on Monday at Burnden Park goals by Chandler, Morgan and Thomas completed the 3-1 scoreline over Huddersfield. That result recorded the 'double' over Town.

Bank Holiday Monday featured the Arsenal v Norwich T.V. game, kicking off at the unusual time of 5.30 p.m. The Gunners showed the form that is capable of winning the Championship as viewers saw them go nap in a 5-0 victory and increase their FIRST DIVISION lead to six clear points. Now it's developed into two horse race with Liverpool.

The DIVISION TWO showdown was staged at Maine Road where 33,000 spectators swarmed in to see Crystal Palace share the points in a 1-1 draw and City held second spot in the League. A slip now however could cost an automatic promotion spot with Watford, Palace and Blackburn all in the hunt. Meanwhile Shrewsbury, Birmingham and Walsall are relegated.

In DIVISION THREE Wolves clinched the title and claim the £20,000 Barclays cash prize. 17,000 spectators saw the Steve Bull scoring machine in action again, netting both in a 2-0 victory over Bristol City. Port Vale had kept the men from Molyneaux in suspense but when they disappointingly lost the evening game at home to Northampton, the race for the championship had finally been won. Sheffield United now look favourites to take the remaining automatic promotion spot after defeating already doomed Aldershot 1-0 at Bramhall Lane.

Next season could see the loss of three financially important Lancashire 'derbys'. Blackpool and Wigan are looking likely candidates for the drop and Preston could be promoted should they successfully compete in the end of season play-offs. Blackpool however are prepared to fight to the final whistle and their 4-1 victory over Gillingham at Bloomfield Road meant relegation to the Fourth for the 'Gills'. Wigan meanwhile shared the spoils with neighbours Preston, 1-1 at Springfield Park. Come Tuesday and Manchester United's usually faithful supporters failed to turn up at Old Trafford in their normal numbers. Only 23,000 saw United beat Wimbledon 1-0, thanks to Brian McClair and it's likely many missed the goal which came in the last minute of a dull encounter.

It's now midnight and the telephone rings - it's a colleague on Spain's Cost Blanca relaying hotline news that John Toshack had just been appointed new manager of Spanish giants Real Madrid, after four successful seasons with Real Sociedad.

Finally, congratulations to Vauxhall Conference League Champions Maidstone who get promoted to the Fourth Division. Just who they replace has yet to be decided.

'POST BAG'

Dear Sir

Congratulations on reaching the Final of the Sherpa Van Trophy

When Bolton met Bristol City in the 1986 Final of the Freight Rover Trophy I produced a limited edition philatelic cover to commemorate the occasion.

Unfortunately Wanderers lost on that occasion, but maybe you will be more successful if you reach this year's final at Wembley?

I still have a few of these 1986 Freight Rover Trophy Final covers, which were franked at Wembley on the day of the match and later had a cachet added detailing the goalscorers and attendance. Only 250 were produced and they are available price £1.75, including postage. I also had a few franked at Bolton and Bristol on the day of the Final and these are priced £2.25 each, including postage or a set of all three covers for £5.75, including postage.

These may be of interest to your supporters and perhaps you would care to give them a mention in a programme. I enclose a specimen which you might like to use as an illustration.

Best of Luck for the match.

Yours faithfully,

Bryan Horsnell (Tilehurst, Reading)

Secretary: Ian Runham

Please publish any part of the results if you think they will be of interest to your supporters. Naturally we should be interested in seeing a copy of any articles published about the survey.

There is still time to enter programmes into the Special section of the survey. This is for programmes from big cup ties, friendlies, testimonials, opening of floodlights, anniversaries, etc. The closing date for this section is 31st May 1988.

I apologise for the fact that this letter is duplicated and not a personal one but there are so many results sheets to be sent out.

I hope that we shall see your programme in our survey again next season, the closing date for entries is 31st January, 1990.

Yours sincerely,

Yours sincerely
Ian Bunham

PS The results of the survey create a lot of interest amongst collectors with requests for programmes. Should you have any surplus copies available I should be grateful if you could let me know the number available and their price, including postage. Thank you.

DAYS GONE BY

5 YEARS AGO: 7th May, 1984.

Bolton put a Bank Holiday dampener on Sheffield United's promotion party with a 3-1 win at Burnden. The Wanderers dominated a game played at a pace that upset United's rhythm and took the lead in only the 4th minute when Jeff Chandler popped up to knock home Simon Rudge's cross. Chandler made it 2-0 in the 37th minute when he curled a shot from 18 yards out of Paul Tomlinson's reach from Brian Borrows' free kick. In the 67th Minute Tony Caldwell took his tally for the season to 23 goals with a perfectly placed shot from 25 yards. A minute later Keith Edwards pulled one back but the Wanderers were never in any danger.

10 YEARS AGO: 5th May, 1979.

The Wanderers' lowest League crowd of the season, 17,394 saw a goalless encounter with Aston Villa. Bolton, with just two points in the bag from the previous six games, had appeals for a penalty turned down when Ken McNaught appeared to handle. Tony Dunne left the club to take up a summer appointment with Detroit Express.

100 YEARS: 6th May, 1889.

The Wanderers went down 1-0 to Everton in Liverpool.

8th May, 1889.

A Crowd of 3,500 were at Pikes Lane for Kenny Davenport's benefit game against Blackburn Rovers. An own goal from Forbes and a Davenport goal gave Bolton a 2-0 win but both teams ended the game with ten men. Rovers lost their keeper McOwen through injury and to keep matters 'equal' Weir left the field for Bolton.

THE CARING FACE OF FOOTBALL

Strenuous efforts are being made to provide modern facilities for the safety and comfort of all football spectators.

This year, more than £1.25 million will be spent on improvements projects at Football League grounds and areas for people with disabilities form a major part of this programme. 1989 will see further initiatives including new and better toilet facilities and additional enclosures for family support.

The Football Grounds Improvement Trust is responsible for all these measures. Each year it receives £4.5 million from the Spotting-the-Ball competition run by Littlewoods, Vernons and Zetters and spends it on schemes to improve standards at British football stadia.

RESERVE AND YOUTH NEWS

It is perhaps apt to look back on what has been a successful campaign for the reserves although at the time of writing there remains six games to be played and the promotion issue to be settled.

After losing their first home game of the season to a strong Oldham side the Wanderers then put together a run of 16 games without defeat.

Mike Jeffrey, who made his Central League debut in the defeat by Oldham, came to the fore and hit a hat trick in the 4-0 defeat of Doncaster at Burnden. Ian Stevens has also been a regular goalgetter, having already equalled last season's total of 16, his record is all the more impressive as he has only appeared in 13 games.

Although there were plenty of high scoring games during this unbeaten run, perhaps the most satisfying success was by a 1-0 margin at fellow promotion rivals Middlesbrough. There, the Wanderers gave a professional performance to soak up plenty of home pressure before stealing the points with a Jeff Chandler goal.

Unfortunately the undefeated run came to an end when Boro came to Burnden in February yet the Wanderers have remained in the top four despite further setbacks.

The emergence of youngsters Alan Stubbs and Darren Oliver has supplemented what on the whole has been a fairly experienced team whilst only goalkeeper Gareth Gray can boast a 100% appearance record to date.

SAFE HANS

Last week I had the pleasure of going down to Wembley to watch our splendid national side do the double over a skilful if not too organized Albanian team. It really was a splendid night, slightly tarnished by the somewhat lack of organization outside the Stadium when there seemed to be eighty per cent of turnstiles open only for tickets and the queues for supporters who were paying on the night got longer and longer. It really started to get frustrating when one old scholar finally reached the turnstile and produced his cheque book, that really went down well with the fans behind him.

But that was only a slight hiccup and the match made up for anything outside the Stadium. Wembley is being brought up to modern day standards and is still a magical place to go. You can feel the history of the old Stadium; what a day we are going to have again later this month!

At half time and full time we mingled and chatted with various Millwall and Chelsea supporters with not a hint of trouble, the way it should be. But it is not always so, and that fact is still a sad one in today's football that rival supporters cannot always stand side by side without trouble happening.

On a more heartening note was the mark of respect for the Hillsborough disaster, with the tremendous singing of the majority of fans in the Stadium of "You'll Never Walk Alone", which really was a touching moment for all football followers.

It would be good to see a new stadium built in the North somewhere, to stage International's, etc. so that England games could be played around the country, like they do in Spain. They could still play the really big games there but move some of the friendlies to other cities. Players and fans still get that buzz from Wembley and nobody can wipe away the history books that Bolton Wanderers won the first ever F.A. Cup there. Wouldn't it be great to lift the Sherpa Van Trophy on May 28th?

RECOLLECTIONS

The Wanderers will today be looking to end Brentford's recent run of good form on their visits to Burnden which has seen them take seven points from three games.

It was in September, 1933 that the two teams first met in the football League when the Wanderers ran out 3-2 winners at Burnden before a 8,868 crowd in a Second Division game.

The Londoners went into a two goal lead thanks to efforts from Fletcher and Hopkins but Ray Westwood reduced the arrears before half time. Jack Milsom volleyed the equaliser in the 69th minute. In the final minute of the game Milsom was sent through by McKay and was tripped from behind inside the penalty area. As Milsom stepped up to take the penalty Holliday attempted to rip him in an effort to put him off but he converted for Bolton's last gasp winner.

Bolton made their first visit to Brentford in February 1934 and the Bees took revenge with a 3-1 victory. Indeed Griffin Park has been something of a graveyard for Bolton sides down the years with the only victory in 14 League and Cup visits coming in November 1986.

Brentford on the other hand recorded their first visit on Burnden Park at the third attempt on the opening day of the 1935/36 season. This was a First Division game between the previous terms Second Division champions and runners up. Brentford, who had won the championship, won 2-0.

The Bees first visit in a Third Division encounter was a memorable one for Bolton supporters for, not only did the Wanderers win 2-0 in April 1973, but also collected the Third Division Championship whilst their opponents were relegated to Division Four.

It was in March 1987 that Brentford last made a visit to Bolton, winning 2-0, whilst earlier this season the Wanderers went down 3-0 at Griffin Park.

Our overall League record against Brentford is as follows:

	Pl	W	D	L	F	A
Home	12	6	3	3	16	12
Away	13	1	4	8	11	26
Total	25	7	7	11	27	38

NATS DIARY

A REVIEW OF NATS INTERNATIONAL CAREER

FINLAND 1 v ENGLAND 5

No. 31

20th May, 1956.

Taylor's retirement through injury in the 44th minute led to history being made in a strange way. Lofthouse took over at centre forward as substitute, and with two goals in a drab second half, turned a 3-1 half time lead into the final victory. It was these two goals that knocked the immortal name of Bloomer out of the record books for it was now Lofthouse with a total of 29 who has more goals to his name for England than any other player.

Even stranger, perhaps, was the fashion in which the goal that over stamped Bloomer arrived. With only eight minutes left Grainger floated across a high corner kick from the left. Lofthouse headed forward, Wilshaw flicked at the ball in the air, missed it and Finland's goalkeeper and right back, leaving it to each other miserably watched the ball trickle inside the post. Such a moment surely deserved something infinitely more majestic.

Edwards had a foot in all the three opening goals with each being splendidly taken. The first, in the 20th minute, came as Wilshaw, moving quickly onto Edwards' through pass, flashed home a powerful cross shot. Two minutes later Edwards put Haynes through and a vicious drive from twenty yards left Finland's keeper helpless.

Then came the best combined goal of all. The ball moved sharply in an expanding pattern by way of Wright, Grainger, Edwards, Taylor and Haynes. Astall, moving fast, took Haynes' pass inside the back in his stride, and England were three up from the acutest of angles.

Just before half time a header by Forsgren past a largely unemployed Wood gave the Finns something to shout about at last.

Having helped themselves to three goals in the space of 15 minutes the breeze of inspiration spilled out of England's white sails and they drifted lazily in the sunshine against opponents who offered little challenge in attack and only a packed goalmouth in defence.

With a quarter of an hour remaining England still only held a two goal advantage before Lofthouse struck his two goals to put a much more realistic look to the score.

TEAMS

England: Wood (Manchester Utd.), Hall (Birmingham), Byrne (Manchester Utd.) Clayton (Blackburn Rovers), Wright (Wolves), Edwards (Manchester Utd.), Astall (Birmingham C.), Haynes (Fulham), Taylor (Manchester Utd.), Wilshaw (Wolves), Grainger (Sheffield Utd.). Sub: Lofthouse (Bolton).

Finland: Hurri, Pajunen, Sommarberg, Lintamo, Lehtinen, Jalava, Peltonen, Hittunen, Pehlman, Lahtinen, Forsgren.

WHERE ARE THEY NOW

BRYAN EDWARDS Bolton Wanderers 1947-65

Unlike most of the ex-players featured in this column Bryan Edwards is still very actively involved in the game, but nowadays it's behind the scenes.

He joined the Burnden Park staff on his 17th birthday and left on his 35th but during the eighteen years in between, Bryan had managed to squeeze in 483 First Division games. He recalled, "I don't think any player had played more First Division games for Bolton at the time but Eddie Hopkinson has passed it since.

Bryan was a member of victorious 1958 F.A. Cup winning team. He said, "That team cost £10 a head and if you check the records you will find it to be the only all English team to have won the F.A. Cup."

In the wake of Bolton going back to Wembley for this year's Sherpa Van Final, Bryan said enthusiastically "I will be there; each Club receives two tickets and I am going along with my wife. The players will enjoy the occasion and I found the best thing about playing at Wembley is when both teams walk out of the tunnel to the roar of the crowd on a nice sunny day."

Upon leaving Bolton, Bryan Edwards became assistant coach at Blackpool when Jimmy Armfield and Alan Ball were in the team.

Bryan has however suffered some of the disappointments of football, like the spell he had as coach at Preston but got the sack when they were relegated to Division 3. He was appointed assistant manager at Plymouth Argyle and after two years there he was offered the vacant manager's job at Bradford City where he again suffered the sack after a three year stint.

Meanwhile Bryan had qualified as a physiotherapist and took up his first post with Huddersfield but as football's merry go round continued he found himself back at Valley Parade via Leeds United. Bryan explained, "John Napier had taken charge and being inexperienced I was made General Manager and when John went George Mulhall was brought in."

Bryan Edwards has now been Bradford City's physio for 15 years and is working under the present managerial partnership of Terry Yorath and Norman Hunter.

After competing in last year's play off's the Bantams will finish mid-table this term but have two important remaining games against champions, Chelsea and promotion hopefuls Manchester City. Bryan said, "I like to see good youngsters come through. I remember Emlyn Hughes who I coached at Blackpool and was outstanding and more recently Stuart McCall who we sold to Everton for £850,000. But I reckon if Lofty was playing today he'd bring £5 million."

Looking back on his days with Bolton, Bryan had a special word for Tommy Banks. He said, "Banksy was the biggest character at the Club, a law unto himself but a good player and he played for England in the 1958 World Cup against Brazil. We are still good friends."

Personality Profile.

PATRICK HALLIGAN

Born in the Huyton district of Liverpool, Paddy is currently on the second year of his YTS apprenticeship. He captained his school team, Cardinal Heenan, playing either midfield or at centre half. He had the honour of playing for Great Britain Catholic Schools in a tournament in Belgium where he played against France; also in that team were fellow team mates Mick Jeffrey and Nicky Spooner. Wanderers' scout Harry Parkinson was instrumental in inviting Paddy down to the Wanderers School of Excellence which trained Tuesday and Thursday nights and this led him onto being signed on a 2 year YTS scheme.

Paddy developed well in his first year with the Club and played a major part in the Youth team's successful defence of the L.F.A. trophy in which they defeated Wigan Athletic 3-0 down here at Burnden Park in the final. Towards the end of last season he broke into the Reserve side making his debut at Darlington in a 3-1 victory. He played centre back along side Dave Sutton that night and faced former Wanderers apprentice goalkeeper Ryan Price who was having a trial at Darlington that night. He progressed well in the Reserve side, keeping his place until the end of the season.

This season was looked upon as a gradual continued progression until a rather nasty back injury forced him out of action between September and January. In recent weeks though he has been back in action mainly for the 'A' team but he has had a couple of outings for the Reserves.

He names Mum and Dad, with brothers and sister Jimmy, Peter, Mick and Sarah as influences on his career so far, as well as his former Sunday team manager Terry Bleasdale and Saturday League team manager Peter Jeffrey. He has been nicknamed 'Little Allo' by his team mates for some strange reason and when he is away from the game he likes to relax by playing other sports, mainly snooker and golf. One of his ambitions for the future is to play on Anfield, his schoolboy favourites, if possible at First Division level.
